

RAPHAEL HOUSE

MOVING FAMILIES FROM CRISIS TO COMMUNITY

Where at-risk children and their families achieve stable housing and financial stability, while strengthening family bonds and personal dignity.

Established in 1971 as the first shelter in San Francisco for homeless families, Raphael House focuses on helping families while preserving and instilling a sense of dignity and responsibility. It fulfills the most basic needs of shelter, food, and clothing in a home-like atmosphere of love, care and security where families can rebuild their lives in the midst of a supportive community.

Your Donation Will Help These Programs:

Family Shelter: A Residential Shelter Program offering housing for children and their families in crisis;

Parent Services: Casework, counseling and educational components that help parents establish goals for their family, develop a plan and acquire the skills necessary to achieve their goals;

Children's Services: Tutoring and educational advocacy; activities that foster creativity, imagination and inner healing through art, stories, games and dance;

AfterCare Services: An Aftercare Program providing systematic follow-up and support to former resident families after they move out of the family shelter.
